A Warm Welcome to Liverpool 2017

Welcome to Liverpool and the 97th Annual Meeting of the British Association of Dermatologists. We are once again delighted to be in the award winning ACC Liverpool.

On the banks of the River Mersey at the heart of the city’s iconic waterfront, ACC Liverpool is a world-class facility in a unique setting. ACC Liverpool is a venue that’s easy to reach with two international airports, 20 minutes from the UK motorway network, and closer still to trains and ferries. Liverpool is a vibrant, modern city, proud of its rich heritage and renowned for its friendly people. Please make the most of Liverpool and enjoy everything it has to offer!

Scientific Programme

This year the theme has been towards developing an integrated clinical approach to care for our patients with skin disease. We have therefore linked with the British Society of Rheumatology and the British Society of Allergy and Cutaneous Immunology as well as including a multidisciplinary session for the management of TEN in adults and children. In the full knowledge of the fact that we all have busy lives and cannot usually attend the meeting for the whole week, we have tried to include some specialised talks in the plenary sessions.

We are pleased that the Arthur Rook Oration will be delivered by Professor John McGrath (London). Professor Giuseppe Argenziano (Naples, Italy) and Dr Christian Baum (Rochester, USA), will give the first of the keynote lectures at the plenary session on Tuesday speaking on ‘Time to use the dermatologist stethoscope?’ and ‘Changing paradigms in the classification and management of high risk SCC: perspectives from the Mayo Clinic’ respectively. Wednesday afternoons programme features Professor James Elder (Ann Arbor, USA) who will update us on ‘What is Epigenetics and why is it important in psoriasis?’. The final keynote lectures will come from Dr Carolyn Charman (Exeter), talking during the plenary session on Thursday afternoon on ‘Teledermatology and Mobile Phones’ and then Professor Kenneth Tonecki (Cleveland, USA) speaking on ‘Non-TB Mycobacterial Diseases’.

New to this year’s annual meeting will be the introduction of iPosters. These will be positioned outside the entrance to the exhibition hall and will be showcasing the top 12 posters. We hope that these will enhance engagement between the audience and presenter.

On Monday 3rd July, we will be holding pre-conference sessions for trainees, Specialty & Associate Specialist doctors, medical students and there will be a BSD self-assessment session.

Due to the success of last year’s BADfest we will again be holding an evening of entertainment, food and drinks on Tuesday. We hope this will be a perfect opportunity to relax, catch up with old acquaintances and form new friendships. This event will be taking place in Hall 3 and surrounding areas of ACC Liverpool. All attendees are invited to attend.

To encourage delegates to stay until the end on Thursday, we have a new ‘Hot Seat’ competition within the final plenary session. Please stay seated and you might be the lucky one that wins an iPad!

It all promises to be a packed and memorable conference, I look forward to offering a warm welcome to all delegates and hope you enjoy the meeting!

Ruth Murphy
Academic Vice President (2015-2017)

Acknowledgements

The British Association of Dermatologists gratefully acknowledges the contribution of the many exhibitors, sponsors whose attendance has made the meeting possible.

Clinicopathological Cases

Joint meeting with the British Society of Dermatopathology

Date:  Tuesday 4th July
Time:  08:45 – 10:23
Room:  Hall 1A
Chair:   Prof Rino Cerio & Dr Sara Edward

Programme

08:45 – 08:52  CPC01  A battle against blood and blisters
              C. Peng, E. Blessing, B. Bailiff and A. Ilchyshyn

08:52 – 08:59  CPC02  Springing up in two shakes of a lamb's tail
              E. Nic Dhonncha, J. Clowry, M. Donnelly and S. Field

08:59 – 09:06  CPC03  When cellulitis isn't cellulitis: an atypical presentation of leprosy
              N. Fadl Ahmed, Z.C. Venables, I. Helbling and M.J. Wiselka

09:06 – 09:13  CPC04  Vulval swelling as the first presentation of Crohn disease in children: a report of three cases
              T. Ahad, A. Riley, E. Martindale B. von Bremen and C. Owen

09:13 – 09:20  CPC05  An unusual radiotherapy-related rash
              W. Abdelrahman, L. Shum, D. McManus, M. Walsh and O. Dolan

09:20 – 09:27  CPC06  Accelerated rheumatoid nodulosis in a patient on adalimumab for rheumatoid arthritis
              E. Nic Dhonncha and L. Paul

09:27 – 09:34  CPC07  A parasitic periumbilical portent
              C. Maguire, A.-G.A. Selim, M. Philippidou, D. Creamer and R. Morris-Jones

09:34 – 09:41  CPC08  A case of nivolumab (an antiprogrammed cell death-1 monoclonal antibody)-induced ichenoid dermatitis occurring in a patient with metastatic melanoma
              C. Edwards and L. Fearfield

09:41 – 09:48  CPC09  A case of cutaneous crystals associated with end-stage renal disease
              C. Peng, E. Blessing, U. Eke and T. Shim

09:48 – 09:55  CPC10  Resolution of primary cutaneous anaplastic large cell lymphoma with rapamycin

09:55 – 10:02  CPC11  A rare case of multiple eruptive clear cell acanthoma
              K. Eustace, K. Ngan, N. Khirwadkar and J. Creem

10:02 – 10:09  CPC12  A case of keratoacanthoma centrifugum marginatum
              S. Mehrteg, L. de la Hera, A. Fleming and S. Shankar

10:09 – 10:16  CPC13  Keloidal scleroderma: a rare variant of systemic sclerosis
              N. Lee, A. Debroy Kidambi, W. Merchant and P. Laws

10:16 – 10:23  CPC14  A case series of immunotherapy-induced blistering skin disease occurring in association with nivolumab [an antiprogrammed cell death (PD)-1 monoclonal antibody] and pembrolizumab [an anti-PD-L1 monoclonal antibody]
              C. Edwards and L. Fearfield

British Society for Dermatological Surgery

Date:  Tuesday 4th July
Time:  08:45-16:15
Room:  Hall 11
Chair:   Dr Walayat Hussain & Dr Raj Mallipeddi
Dr Vindy Ghura & Dr Steve Keohane
Dr Raj Mallipeddi & Dr Vindy Ghura

Programme

08:45 – 08:52  DS01  British Association of Dermatologists national audit on nonmelanoma skin cancer excision 2016
              D. Keith, D. de Berker, A. Bray, A. Brain and M.F. Mohd-Mustapa

08:52 – 08:59  DS02  Pleomorphic dermal sarcoma: a tertiary-referral centre 5-year surgical experience
              I. Logan, K. Vroobel and C. Perrett

08:59 – 09:06  DS03  Identifying patient characteristics that make Mohs micrographic surgery an inappropriate treatment for nonmelanoma skin cancer in an ageing population: pilot study survey results
              N. Sieringa and C. Lawrence

09:06 – 09:13  DS04  Axiolactic use before Mohs micrographic surgery
              G. McIntyre, M. Ferguson, C. Fleming and A. Affleck

09:13 – 09:20  DS05  Triple medicine combination injection, a new cocktail to combat keloids in the present era: a prospective clinical study
              R. Velurethu, V. B, M. Shamanur and G. Patni

09:20 – 09:27  DS06  Intraleisional cryotherapy for enhancing the involution of keloids: a clinical study
              R. Velurethu, M. Shamanur and V. B

09:27 – 09:34  DS07  Ectropion repair techniques for the dermatological surgeon
              J.M.E. Boggs, M.J. Lavery, B. Wynne, P. Ormond and R.B.M. Barry

09:34 – 09:41  DS08  Dermoscopic examination of basal cell carcinoma margins before Mohs surgery does not reduce the number of Mohs stages
              P. Jayasekera, J. Dodds, T. Oliphant, J. Langtry and C. Lawrence

09:41 – 09:48  DS09  Guidelines for safe diathermy/electrosurgery in patients with cardiac rhythm devices undergoing skin surgery
              B. Wright, D. Keith and A. Bray

09:48 – 09:55  DS10  Cochlear implants: should monopolar diathermy be avoided?
              A. Sharma and S. Varma

09:55 – 10:02  DS11  QUICK FIRE RECON
              The utility of the Omega graft for full-thickness defects of the nasal ala and distal nose
              C. Ward and W. Hussain

10:02 – 10:09  DS12  QUICK FIRE RECON
              Transposed island pedicle flap: a case series of 33 patients
              P. Jayasekera, D. Brass, T. Oliphant, C. Lawrence and J. Langtry
10:09 – 10:16 DS13 QUICK FIRE RECON
Large lateral canthal defect requiring repair with a combination of cutaneous flaps
M. Lavery, J. Boggs, D. Wall and R.B.M. Barry

10:16 – 11:00 Break Exhibition Hall

11:00 – 11:07 DS14 Prospective study comparing the use of ex vivo fluorescence confocal microscopy and traditional frozen-section pathology in Mohs micrographic surgery of basal cell carcinoma
E. Craythorne, E. Damato, M. Pavel, V. Cornelius, A. Coleman, R. Meys and R. Mallipeddi

11:07 – 11:14 DS15 A comparative study between transplantation of autologous noncultured epidermal cell suspension prepared by a conventional laboratory method vs. a four-chamber method in stable vitilgo
S. Mrigpuri, D. Parsad and S. Kumaran

11:14 – 11:21 DS16 Feasibility of using the Skin Cancer Quality of Life Impact Tool in nonmelanoma skin cancers
G. Wall, L. Kelly, E. Gibbons and R. Matin

B. Chan, F. Al-Niaimi and R. Mallipeddi

11:28 – 11:35 DS18 Why and when Mohs surgery at sites other than the head and neck is used: a retrospective analysis of 5878 patients
M. Lynch and R. Mallipeddi

11:35 – 11:42 DS19 QUICK FIRE RECON
Full-thickness lower eyelid loss following Mohs tumour extirpation: time for a rethink on reconstruction?
N. Lee, C. Ward and W. Hussain

11:42 – 11:49 DS20 QUICK FIRE RECON
Outcomes of nasal ala reconstruction with composite chondrocutaneous auricular grafts: keeping the skin on
B. Chan, A. Ah-Weng, R. Patalay, E. Tsele and R. Mallipeddi

11:49 – 11:56 DS21 Preoperative blood pressure does not predict bleeding risk in Mohs surgery patients
P. Jayasekera, J. Dodds, A. Kai, T. Oliphant, J. Langtry and C. Lawrence

11:56 – 12:03 DS22 Rapid preparation of high-quality Mohs micrographic surgery tissue using a new embedding system
J.M.E. Boggs, M.J. Lavery, M. Monks, B. Wynne, P. Ormond and R.B.M. Barry

12:03 – 12:10 DS23 Erbium–glass laser in the treatment of facial scars in patients with dark skin types
R. Bansal

12:10 – 12:17 DS24 The use of patient-led smartphone photography in dermatological surgery
L.J. van Vugt, F. Xie, A. Paolino and S. Rai

12:17 – 12:24 DS25 A digital image capture cut-up table for Mohs gross specimens
J.M.E. Boggs, M.J. Lavery, M. Monks, B. Wynne, P. Ormond and R.B.M. Barry

12:24 – 12:31 DS26 Change in size of basal cell carcinomas from referral to Mohs micrographic surgery: does the waiting list negate the benefits?
S. Ball, A. Choa, D. Veitch, L. Naysmith and S. Rice

12:31 – 13:30 Lunch Exhibition Hall

13:30 – 14:15 FOCUS SESSION
Surgical Top Tips
Dr Walayat Hussain

14:15 – 14:45 Guest Lecture
Challenging Cases I have learned from the most: lessons from the Mayo Clinic
Dr Christian Baum (Rochester, USA)
The attendance of Dr Christian Baum to give this lecture has been facilitated by LEO Pharma

14:45 – 15:00 Break Exhibition Hall

15:00 – 15:30 Guest Lecture: Prof Giuseppe Argenziano (Naples, Italy) – Hall 1A

15:30 – 16:15 AGM

16:30 – 17:00 Guest Lecture: Dr Christian Baum (Rochester, USA) – Hall 1A

Notes
DS27  A ‘Lilliputian-O2’ approach to ensuring good-quality specimens during Mohs surgery
C. Ward, N. Lee and W. Hussain

DS28  Alginate molds and surface profilometry: an objective tool to evaluate postacne facial scars
A. Sarkate, S. Ghate and R. Dhurat

DS29  A clinical feasibility study using an integrated skin-marking device designed for imaging with optical coherence tomography
S. Manam, A. Coleman, R. Mallipeddi, E. Craythorne and R. Patalay

DS30  Models for the use of fluorescent confocal microscopy in a Mohs micrographic surgery service
G. McIntyre, H.Y. Koh, D. Allen and C. Fleming

DS31  Actinic cheilitis of the lower lip: should we be advocating vermilionectomy as the treatment of choice?
C. Ward and W. Hussain

DS32  Preoperative factors can predict surgical complexity in Mohs micrographic surgery
H.Y. Koh, G. McIntyre, A. Affleck and C. Fleming

DS33  A qualitative study of the role of volunteering within a Mohs service
G. McIntyre, L. Hay, C. Fleming and A. Affleck

DS34  A scalp surgical pearl: the staple sandwich
R. Bhutani, C. Ward and W. Hussain

DS35  An unusual umbilical nodule
C. Ward, A. Boon and W. Hussain

DS36  Leptomeningeal melanomatosis: a subtle complication of melanoma
A. Cummin, C. Mitchell, J. Hately and A. Belgi

DS37  Experience of the Patient and Observer Scar Assessment Scale (POSAS) to evaluate scars following Mohs micrographic surgery: a useful tool for the dermatological surgeon

DS38  Parotid fistula: management of a rare complication
A. Sharma and S. Varma

DS39  Glue for grafts: an alternative to sutures to secure a full-thickness skin graft
N. Spierings and T. Oliphant

DS40  Pre-emptive intra-auricular electrosurgical resurfacing of cylindromas as a strategy to prevent conductive deafness in CYLD cutaneous syndrome
N. Rajan and J. Langtry

DS41  Intravascular basal cell carcinoma: what to do next?
A. Sharma, D. Veitch, S. Elsheikh, M. Bamford, D.J. McKenna and S. Varma

DS42  The O to Z flap for repair of post-Mohs surgical defects of the medial canthal region
J.M.E. Boggs, M.J. Lavery, B. Wynne, P. Ormond and R.B.M. Barry

DS43  Are dermatology trainee surgical facilities up to scratch? A multicentre service evaluation
N. Sathyanarayana, G.A. Fremlin and B.C. Gee

DS44  Electronic cigarettes: what the dermatological surgeon needs to know
A. Sharma and S. Varma

DS45  ‘Living With Melanoma’: an awareness and education programme for patients post-treatment
G. Wall, K. Ford, A. Andrews and R. Clayton

DS46  Approaching a challenging paracentral upper-lip surgical defect
C. Ward and W. Hussain

DS47  Pilot study of the introduction of ex vivo fluorescence confocal microscopy into a Mohs service with identification of current barriers to integration
G. McIntyre, H.Y. Koh, D. Allen and C. Fleming

DS48  Utilization of an electrical impedance spectroscopy system in a National Health Service setting in a pigmented lesion clinic as an adjuvant to dermoscopy and clinical history
C. Henderson and B. Pees

DS49  Evaluation and validation of a Mohs surgery trainee rating assessment form in a dermatology Mohs teaching unit
Y. Oon and R. Abbott

DS50  The enigma of posterior ear basal cell carcinomas: the largest reported case series treated with Mohs micrographic surgery
S.P. Manam and R. Mallipeddi

DS51  ‘Natural’ topical therapies don’t lead to healthy surgical defects
M. Lavery, J. Boggs, D. Wall, P. Ormond and R.B.M. Barry

DS52  If you don’t put your finger on it, you’ll put your foot in it: not every scalp lesion is a cyst!
N. Harper, S. Orpin and A. Heagerty

DS53  Bilobed and trilobed flap reconstruction of large medial-cheek wounds following Mohs surgery
N. Spierings, T. Oliphant and J. Langtry

DS54  Clinicopathological features of plantar basal cell carcinoma treated with Mohs micrographic surgery
S. Brown, N. Rajan, T. Oliphant and J. Langtry

DS55  The importance of surgical instrument review: keeping it sharp
E. Corden and A.C. Sherley-Dale

Skin cancer datasets: a means towards the best personalised and population-based dermatological care
Dr David Slater (Sheffield & Chesterfield)

Skin cancer datasets comprise nationally agreed and standardised core evidence-based information, that is required by clinicians to provide the best personalised dermatological care for the management, treatment and prognosis of skin cancer. Although authored and published by the Royal College of Pathologists, they are NICE accredited, have a content based on substantial clinical input from the BAD and thereby enjoy clinical ownership. They facilitate research excellence and also constitute the basis of population-based dermatological care, by acting as a primary information source for both the NHS Clinical Outcomes and Services Dataset and the Public Health England National Cancer Registration and Analysis Service. This presentation will provide a clinically relevant update on topical areas in skin cancer datasets, including the new TNM 8 staging, margin terminology and status and disease classification. The recent BAD national audit on non-melanoma skin cancer will be crucial in deciding whether changes are required in the new forthcoming 3rd edition of the datasets. Open consultation is paramount to achieve this aim.

11:50 – 12:45 Lunch Exhibition Hall

12:45 – 13:03 DP01 Defining the boundaries in primary cutaneous B-cell lymphomas

Plenary Session

Date: Tuesday 4th July
Time: 15:00-17:00
Room: Hall 1A
Chair: Dr Nick Levell & Dr Ruth Murphy

Programme

15:00 – 15:30
Keynote Lecture – Introduced by Dr Nick Levell
Time to use the dermatologist stethoscope?
Prof Giuseppe Argenziano (Naples, Italy)

The introduction of dermoscopy in dermatology revealed structures and features invisible to the naked eye, providing additional morphologic information during clinical examination of a skin lesion. The technique has been applied to the evaluation of melanocytic tumors, with research efforts focusing mainly on the identification of dermoscopic characteristics of melanoma. With time, the value of dermoscopy in improving melanoma detection was established, and the technique gained global acceptance for the assessment of pigmented skin tumors.

More recently, several investigators reported on dermoscopic patterns of non-pigmented tumors, as well as non-neoplastic dermatoses. The latter were based on the observation that, apart from pigmentation structures formed by melanin deposition, dermoscopy may also reveal vascular alterations, color variegations, follicle disturbances, and other features invisible to the unaided eye. The dermatoscope is now equivalent to the dermatologist’s stethoscope, providing a clinician experienced in the technique with additional information on the morphology of skin lesions or eruptions.

15:30 – 16:00
IL1 Invited Lecture
Challenging cases with a dermatology/rheumatology interface and how to secure funding for them
Dr Peter Lanyon (Nottingham)

Prof Wendy Reid (London)

16:30 – 17:00
KL2 Keynote Lecture – Introduced by Dr Nick Levell
Changing paradigms in the classification and management of high risk SCC: perspectives from the Mayo Clinic
Dr Christian Baum (Rochester, USA)

The term “high-risk cutaneous squamous cell carcinoma” (HRSCC) has been variably applied over time and, currently, there is no uniformly accepted definition of the entity. In recent years, a body of outcomes data has been published that quantifies risk factors for local recurrence, nodal metastasis and disease-specific death from cutaneous squamous cell carcinoma. Based on these data, and existing paradigms for other cutaneous malignancies, we propose an evidence-based definition for HRSCC that is being applied at Mayo Clinic. Specific adjuvant and staging modalities of these tumors will be reviewed and discussed, along with implications for clinical management of affected patients.

UK TREND - Clinical and Translational Research in Atopic Eczema

Plenary Session

Date: Wednesday 5th July
Time: 16:00-18:00
Room: Hall 1A
Chair: Dr Ruth Murphy & Dr Anshoo Sahota

Programme

16:00 – 16:30  KL03  Keynote Lecture - Introduced by Dr Ruth Murphy
What is Epigenetics and why is it important in psoriasis
Prof James Elder (Ann Arbor, USA)

Working with colleagues from the US, UK, Canada, and Germany, we have identified 63 psoriasis-associated loci at genome-wide significance, identified differential genetic contributions to skin psoriasis vs psoriatic arthritis, and discovered genetic connections to other autoimmune diseases. Despite these successes, fine-mapping studies indicate that most (~80-90%) of these genetic signals do not encode “traditional” deleterious changes in protein structure. To address this challenge, we are studying the effects of psoriasis-related genetic variation on chromatin accessibility and gene expression in blood-derived myeloid dendritic cells and skin-homing T-cells from hundreds of psoriasis cases and controls. Such genome-wide epigenetic experiments are becoming the norm in the post-GWAS era and will be important for a variety of dermatologic diseases, including alopecia areata, atopic dermatitis, lupus, and vitiligo.

16:30 – 16:55  IL3  Invited Lecture
Monitoring the liver while treating the skin
Prof Guru Aithal (Nottingham)

16:55 – 17:20  IL4  Invited Lecture
Drug use in pregnancy: a guide for dermatologists
Prof Catherine Nelson-Piercy (London)

17:20 – 17:45  IL5  Invited Lecture
Psychological interventions in skin disease in adults and children
Dr Andrew Thompson (Sheffield)

17:45 – 18:00  Psoriasis – The Skin I’m in Dr Sandy McBride, Sarah Sutcliffe, Danny Scheinmann & Neyire Ashworth
A live performance made in association with the See Psoriasis: Look Deeper campaign which looks at the wider life impact of psoriasis including emotional well-being and mental health.

Chair: Prof Chris Griffiths

Programme

The clinical positioning of OTEZLA (apremilast) in the psoriasis (PsO) treatment pathway: an expert consensus

Prof Chris Griffiths (Manchester)
Dr Anthony Bewley (London)
Dr Kevin McKenna (Belfast)
Dr Philip Laws (Leeds)

18:15 – 18:20 Welcome and introduction
18:20 – 18:25 Psoriasis: the challenge
• The patient perspective
• The HCP perspective
18:25 – 18:35 An introduction to OTEZLA
• Mode of Action (MoA) and clinical data
18:35 – 18:45 Defining the optimal psoriasis management pathway: a consensus statement
• Diagnosis and assessment
• How is disease severity defined?
• Defining good treatment management
• Clinical positioning of OTEZLA – an algorithm
• Impact on current treatments and sequencing
18:45 – 18:55 OTEZLA real world experience
• Clinical case studies
18:55 – 19:00 Panel discussion
• Audience questions

Sponsored Symposium: Janssen

Date: Wednesday 5th July
Time: 18:15 – 19:00
Room: Hall 3B
Chair: Prof Jonathan Barker

Programme

Emerging treatments for psoriasis: unlocking the IL-23 pathway

18:15 – 18:20 Welcome and introduction
Prof Jonathan Barker (London)
18:20 – 18:40 Leveraging IL-23 in psoriasis
• Pathophysiology of IL-23 inhibition
• Link to experience with ustekinumab - extension data and registries show safety profile and persistency data
• Clinical trial data including safety and efficacy
  Prof Kristian Reich (Hamburg, Germany)
18:40 – 18:50 What next for IL-23 inhibition?
• How could this change clinical practice?
• What would it mean for patients?
• What trials are ongoing for psoriatic arthritis?
  Dr Brian Kirby (Dublin, Ireland)
18:50 – 19:00 Q&A and discussion
All chaired by Jonathan Barker

Chair: Dr Mabs Chowdhury & Dr Richard Weller
Dr Karen Gibbon & Dr Vincent Li

Programme

08:30 – 08:45 RF01 The health burden of nonmelanoma skin cancer in England: an underestimated nemesis.
Initial analysis of the National Cancer Registration and Analysis Service
Z. C Venables, C. Harwood, C. Proby, I.M. Leigh and J. Rashbass

08:45 – 09:00 RF02 Understanding actinic keratosis and squamous cell carcinoma in the era of whole-exome and genome sequencing

09:00 – 09:30 PR01 ID and the Skin 2017
Prof Kenneth Tomecki (Cleveland, USA)

09:30 – 09:45 RF03 Acetate, a principal metabolite of ethanol, potentiates proinflammatory responses to tumour necrosis factor-alpha/interleukin-17 through epigenetic modifications: a potential role in alcohol-provoked psoriasis
K. Wu, N. Harker, S. Kendrick, M. Donaldson, M. Morse and N. Reynolds

09:45 – 10:00 RF04 Neuropsychiatric comorbidities among psoriatic adolescents: a 15-year population-based cross-sectional study of 3112 patients.
E. Galili, N. Astman, D. Daniely, R. Shreberk-Hassidim and A. Barzilai

10:00 – 10:45 Break Exhibition hall

10:45 – 11:15 PR02 Risk factors and consequences of zoster
Dr Sinead Langan (London)

11:15 – 11:30 RF05 BSD best registrar paper
Preliminary validation of the IL-36 receptor as a potential therapeutic target in psoriasis
S. Mahil, M. Peakman, R. Trembath, J. Wright, J. Barker, F. Capon

11:30 – 12:00 PR03 Big data and relevance to dermatology
Prof Tamar Nijsten (Rotterdam, The Netherlands)
British Society for Paediatric Dermatology & The British Society for Allergy and Clinical Immunology joint session

Date: Thursday 6th July
Time: 08:30 – 12:15
Room: Hall 3
Chair: Dr Ruth Murphy & Dr Lindsay Shaw
Dr Carsten Flohr & Dr Helen Brough

Programme

08:30 – 08:40  PA01 An open-label phase IIa trial assessing the pharmacokinetics, safety and efficacy of dupilumab in a paediatric population with moderate-to-severe atopic dermatitis
M.J. Cork, D. Thaçi, J.D. Davis, Q. Zhang, B. Akinlade, N.M.H. Graham, G. Pirozzi and A. Bansal

08:40 – 08:50  PA02 Propranolol in the treatment of infantile haemangiomas: British Society for Paediatric Dermatology consensus guidelines

08:50 – 09:00  PA03 Anxiety in paediatric dermatological surgery: a survey of U.K. dermatologists
L.L. Hong, A.P. Panthagani, J. Srinivasan and J. Ravenscroft

09:00 – 09:10  PA04 An audit of management and outcomes in 102 children with infantile haemangiomas from a single U.K. centre
L. Ferguson, J. Gao, E. Merika, N. Roberts and B. Laguda

09:10 – 09:20  PA05 First case of constitutional mismatch repair deficiency associated with congenital melanocytic naevus

09:20 – 09:30  PA06 A retrospective paediatric teledermatology audit
S. Whitaker and R. Goodwin

09:30 – 10:00  Guest Lecture
Molecular mechanisms in atopic eczema: what have we learnt from filaggrin?
Prof Sara Brown (Dundee)

10:00 – 10:45  Break  Exhibition Hall

10:45 – 11:10  Guest Lecture
Wind Tunnels & Landing Strips? Putting air, airways and eczema together
Dr Claudia Gore (London)

11:10 – 11:35  Guest Lecture
Eczema and asthma: two diseases, one genetic trait?
Dr Saffron Willis-Owen (London)

11:35 – 11:45  PA07 Epidemiology of chronic urticaria in children: a retrospective study of 300 children from a tertiary-care institute
R. Mahajan, S. Kumaran and D. Parsad

11:45 – 11:55  PA08 Relationship of maternal preconception stress and low mood to offspring atopic eczema at age 12 months: findings from the Southampton Women’s Survey
S. El-Heis, S. Crozier, E. Healy, S. Robinson, N. Harvey, C. Cooper, H. Inskip, J. Baird and K.M. Godfrey

11:55 – 12:05  PA09 Does prolonged and exclusive breastfeeding reduce the risk of atopic eczema in adolescence? The PROBIT cluster-randomized trial in the Republic of Belarus

12:05 – 12:15  PA10 The role of domestic water hardness in the development of skin barrier dysfunction and atopic eczema: a systematic review of the literature

Notes
PA11 Pigmentary hypertrichosis and nonautoimmune insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus syndrome with sclerodermatous lesions treated with tocilizumab
   L.F. Soriano and A. Bewley

PA12 Can referral management enhance access to paediatric dermatology services?
   E. Gilhooley, C. Feighery and S. Collins

PA13 A rise in cases of paediatric and young adult patients with vulvodynia
   C. Fleming and P. Todd

PA14 How common are head lice? Are smartphone/tablet devices to blame?

Plenary Session – CPD Update In General Dermatology

Date:  Thursday 6th July
Time:  13:15-17:15
Room:  Hall 1A
Chair:  Dr Nick Levell & Dr Ruth Murphy

Programme

13:15 – 13:45  KL04  Keynote Lecture - Introduced by Dr Nick Levell
  Teledermatology and Mobile Phones
  Dr Carolyn Charman (Exeter)

Technological advances in mobile cameras and electronic referral pathways have opened up exciting opportunities for redesigning dermatology services. Virtual dermatology clinics are expanding across the UK, and can provide cost-effective, fast-access integrated dermatology care. The rapidly changing digital referral landscape will be discussed, in the context of recently developed quality standards for the use of mobile photographic devices in dermatology.

13:45 – 14:05  IL7  Invited Lecture
  How to tender for Dermatology service and maximise departmental income
  Dr Tanya Bleiker (Derby) & Miss Tania von Hospenthal (London)

14:05 – 14:30  IL8  Invited Lecture
  Photoprotection from tanning drugs: the light and the dark
  Prof Lesley Rhodes (Manchester)

14:30 – 15:15  KL05  Arthur Rook Oration - Introduced by Dr Nick Levell
  Travels with my grant: tales of a gene hunter
  Prof John McGrath (London)

Discovering the genes that are mutated in inherited skin diseases represents the first step in improving molecular diagnostics and developing translational research that can produce better treatments for patients. This talk will traverse the globe in recalling the orator’s work in unravelling genodermatosis genes from South Africa to South America to South London, with frequent forays to the Middle-East as well as the middle of nowhere! Gene hunting methods, old and new, will be illustrated, and emerging benefits for patients will be highlighted.

15:15 – 15:30  Break  Upper Galleria Foyer

15:30 – 16:00  Focus Sessions
Atypical (non-tuberculous) mycobacteria can produce distinctive cutaneous infections. Such infections are uncommon, but the astute dermatologist can often lead the way to the correct diagnosis and a good outcome. The main cutaneous pathogens are Mycobacterium marinum, M ulcerans, and the ‘rapid growers.’ M marinum produces the often characteristic ‘fish tank’ or ‘swimming pool’ granuloma and M ulcerans produces the large and often expansive Buruli ulcer. The ‘rapid growers,’ named for their quickened growth on culture, produce non-descript skin disease, ie nodules, plaques, ulcers, usually as a secondary event after surgery or trauma. Therapy can be problematic and challenging. Antibiotics are usually necessary, often coupled with surgery, for localized infection. Presentation will provide an overview of such infections and highlight trends and developments, including ‘what’s new’ re: diagnosis and therapy.

Date: Thursday 6th July
Time: 15:30-16:00
Room: Hall 11
Chair: Dr Abby Macbeth

Programme

JAK Inhibitors for Alopecia areata - an update
15:30 – 16:00  FS1  JAK Inhibitors for Alopecia areata - an update
Dr Abby Macbeth (Norwich) & Prof Des Tobin (Bradford)

Date: Thursday 6th July
Time: 15:30-16:00
Room: Hall 1B
Chair: Dr John Ingram

Programme

Biologic interventions for Hidradenitis Suppurativa
15:30 – 15:40  PS2  Clinical trial evidence (do they work in theory?)
Dr John Ingram (Cardiff)
15:40 – 15:50  PS2:1  Case presentations (do they work in practice?)
Dr Giles Dunnill (Bristol)
15:50 – 16:00  Q&A

Date: Thursday 6th July
Time: 15:30-16:00
Room: Hall 3

Programme

Biological therapy for Atopic Dermatitis
15:30 – 15:45  PS3  Biological therapy for Atopic Dermatitis
Prof Michael Cork (Sheffield)
Hot Topics
They will be semi-informal set-up taking place in two designated areas within the Exhibition Hall 2 during breaks. These are highlighted as HT1 and HT2 on the exhibition plan.

Dr Barry Monk
14:30 – 15:00 HT2 Maintenance treatment in vulval lichen sclerosus: Is vulval skin cancer preventable?
Dr Sue Cooper & Dr Hazel Bell

Wednesday 5th July – morning break
10:30 – 11:00 HT1 Setting up a teledermatology service – what it can and can’t do for you
Dr Saul Halpern
10:30 – 11:00 HT2 Update on Pathogenesis and Treatment
Dr Tabi Leslie

Wednesday 5th July – afternoon break
15:30 – 16:00 HT1 What’s new in Cosmetic Dermatology
Dr Anjali Mahto
15:30 – 16:00 HT2 Update on skin toxicity in melanoma treatment
Dr Louise Fearfield

Thursday 6th July – morning break
10:15 – 10:45 HT1 Skin Research - Whatever Next?
Prof David Gawkrodger
10:15 – 10:45 HT2 Epigenetics for Dummies
Dr Stephen Smith

Pharma Workshop
They will be semi-informal set-up taking place in designated areas within the Exhibition Hall 2 during breaks. These are highlighted as HT1 on the exhibition plan.

Tuesday 4th July – Lunchtime break
12:15 – 12:30 HT1 (LEO Pharma) – Driving improved outcomes in psoriasis: A time for change?
Dr Angelika Razzazque (London)
12:30 – 12:45 HT1 (Janssen) Long-term management of psoriasis: applying learnings from registry data
Prof David Burden (Edinburgh)
12:45 – 13:00 HT1 Enstilar® (calcipotriol/betamethasone) - Evolution of Topical treatment in Plaque Psoriasis
Prof Rino Cerio (Royal London)

Thursday 6th July – Lunchtime break
12:45 – 13:00 HT1 (Janssen) Long-term management of psoriasis: applying learnings from registry data
Prof David Burden (Edinburgh)

18 Week Support is a charity and consultant led organisation. We support existing NHS resources with the management of waiting lists, focusing on the provision of insourcing support for Trusts that have short term or longer term challenges with capacity. We look passionately about the services we provide and strongly believe that they can help drive cost efficiencies in the NHS.

Brain Skin Colloquium
Monday 9th – Tuesday 10th October 2017

The brain-skin connection is emerging as an area of significant clinical and research interest given that there is a large body of data which demonstrates the impact of the brain on the skin and vice versa. Following a successful Stress and Skin Symposium held at Cornell Weill Cornell University, New York in June 2006, the time is ripe to gather experts from Europe and North America to present recent novel research data as well as the clinical application of such advances.

The meeting will aim to discuss: (i) Interactions between the nervous system and skin whilst providing a clinical update of the latest developments in this key area; (ii) Facilitate networking and collaboration between investigators which could lead to scientific and therapeutic advances. Consequently, the meeting will be of great value to clinicians (in particular dermatologists, however, psychologists, psychiatrists and neurologists would also be interested in this meeting) and scientists including immunologists, cell biologists, experts in signal transduction, cancer biologists and scientists interested in connective tissue.
